APPALLING PARIS FIRE.
MAGNIFICENT PRINTEMPS BUILDING GUTTED.
DAMAGE MILLIONS OF FRANCS.

PARIS, September 28.
The entire fire brigade of Paris is fighting an appalling fire at the Grands Magasins du Printemps in the Boulevard Haussmann. The fire, which is attributed to a short circuit, started in the kitchen at the top of the building and rapidly spread through the entire building, the front of which soon collapsed. Portions of the burning edifice fell on adjoining buildings. Packers and carmen had earlier endeavoured to save goods, particularly valuable carpets, throwing them out of the windows. The burning block had recently opened a giant crane which is still standing above it and menaces the firemen who have withdrawn from the narrow gap between the new and old blocks as falling facade is filling the street with huge masses of blazing debris.

GOODS OF FABULOUS COST DESTROYED.

The new block of the Printemps Building, a magnificent structure five storeys high covering three acres, has been gutted. The old block was threatened owing to the wind blowing the flames across the narrow street between the buildings and was only saved through the great exertions of the firemen. The fact that the fire started early in the morning before the arrival of 5,000 employees prevented serious loss of life. Hitherto the only casualties have been two firemen injured. The damage must be enormous, possibly millions of francs, as furs, tapestry, and silks of fabulous cost were destroyed.

LEAGUE AND DISARMAMENT.
LORD ROBERT CECIL WINS HEATED DEBATE.

GENEVA, September 28.
The resolution, adopted by the sixth committee (mentioned in our earlier cables) asked the military commission to submit to the Council a draft treaty or some other definite plan for reduction of armaments for presentation to the next Assembly and that in order to enable the commission to accomplish its task the Council would be asked to re-appoint the commission. The debate preceding the adoption of the resolution occupied British representative, Mr. Fisher into opposition with Lord Robert Cecil. Mr. Fisher declared that Britain was very anxious for a reduction in armaments but could not produce general disarmament. He said the world was too disturbed to permit any definite plan and asked how it was possible to draft a proposal for disarmament without the United States and Russia participating. He asked Lord Robert Cecil to withdraw his proposal till next year.

The French delegate M. Reynaud supported Mr. Fisher, declaring that consideration of Lord Robert Cecil's resolution was at present impossible. Signor Schanzer (Italy) tried to reconcile the heated speakers.

Lord Robert Cecil said he might reach an agreement with Signor Schanzer but not with Mr. Fisher or M. Reynaud who wanted nothing done. This was a matter vital to the League which would be judged on it, not on the questions of Albania, Silesia, or Armenia.

Eventually a joint resolution by Lord Robert Cecil and Signor Schanzer was carried by 22 votes to 0. There were many abstentions. The result was cheered and Lord Robert Cecil was numerously congratulated.

AUSTRALIAN PREMIER VIEWS.

MELBOURNE, September 28.
Mr. Hughes received an enthusiastic welcome on his return from Europe. Interviewed with regard to the possibility of Australia being unofficially represented at the Washington Conference he shook his head and expressed the opinion that it would be like a man presenting himself at the gates of heaven without a ticket of admission. He said that Europe hoped the conference would be successful but it was too early to talk of what was likely to happen. America was very much a novice in international diplomacy and there might be many surprises awaiting American statesmen when the conference met. He declared that a British general election was inevitable soon with the Irish question as a factor because, the people must be consulted whether the Government's offer was accepted or rejected.

JAPAN'S DELEGATES CHOSEN.

WASHINGTON, September 28.
Japan has chosen the Ambassador, Mr. Shidehara, the president of the Upper House, Prince Tokugawa, and the Minister of Marine, Baron Kato as delegates to the Washington conference.

AMERICAN PREPARATIONS.

Mr. Elihu Root arrives at Washington next week when the disarmament conference delegates are expected to begin consultations.

LEAGUE COMMITTEE'S RESOLUTION.

GENEVA, September 29.
The third committee of the League of Nations, on the motion of Lord Robert Cecil, decided to recommend the nations recently admitted to the League not to increase their military and naval expenditure for two years.

WEIGHTS AND MEASURES.
INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE OPENS IN PARIS.

PARIS, September 28.
The international conference of weights and measures opened with the Commerce Minister, M. Dior, as chairman. Twenty-five nations are represented, notably Japan, Siam, and the United States. —Havas.

FRANCE THANKED.

AID FOR RUSSIAN REFUGEES.

CONSTANTINOPLE, September 28.
A delegation of the Russian national committee visited on General Pelle, the French high Commissioner to thank him for the help granted by France to 150,000 Russian refugees who had now mostly settled in various countries and were now able to support themselves. —Havas.

LIBEL ACTION.

SINGAPORE COLD STORAGE
v. "STRAITS TIMES."

The Straits Times of Sept. 20 reports:—
There was commenced in the Supreme Court this morning before the Chief Justice, Sir Walter Shaw, an action which was instituted in January of last year in which the Singapore Cold Storage, Ltd., claims from the Straits Times Press, Ltd., and Mr. A. W. Still, damages for "libel written and published of and concerning the plaintiffs falsely and maliciously in the issue of the defendants' newspaper, the Straits Times, dated January 7th, 1920, under the headings of "World Food Problems" and "Profiteering."

Mr. G. S. Carver and Mr. Roland Braddell were for the plaintiffs, and Mr. W. E. Demuth and Mr. E. A. Stevens for the defendants.

Mr. Carver, opening, read the statement of claim showing that the words complained of appeared in the Straits Times of January 7th, 1920 and were as follows:—

"Time after time we have pointed out that the Singapore Cold Storage Company is profiteering ruthlessly. We have shown how easily Government could ascertain the price at which the company buys in Australia, and the cost of freight to Singapore, and all handling charges here. Two or three honest business men would decide in a few hours what are fair prices, but for three to four years, the company has been allowed to put up its prices, and there has not been even a pretence of exercising control. Those interested in the company are sufficiently influential to overawe the Government, or to persuade it to close its eyes. And, of course as long as the Cold Storage Company is allowed to do as it pleases, the Government dare not interfere with monopolism and profiteering in the live cattle trade. To the small extent of its interference it has been unjust, because there is no decency in punishing petty traders for crimes in cents when big concerns with crimes in dollars go free. The huge surplus of meat in Australia due to the scarcity of ships for transport to Europe has made it possible to supply Malaya with meat, butter, cheese, poultry and the like at prices not a cent higher than pre-war rates. But the Government did nothing and the public has had to submit to being fleeced. One wonders for how long, and whether there is any chance of a strong hand being laid upon the profiteers."

Reference is made in our leader to-day to the profiteering of the Singapore Cold Storage Company. The point is this: Owing to the shortage of shipping to convey meat to the European market there has been a surplus in Australia and New Zealand which assured abundant and cheap supplies to the Singapore Cold Storage Company, which has also had the advantage of regular sailings between Singapore and Australia free from war risk. In spite of this, the Cold Storage Company has profiteered ruthlessly, and the Government, which prosecuted petty traders for petty extortion, has never moved a finger to check the monopolist abuses. The Cold Storage Company has as its directors persons of considerable local influence, and this is the only explanation we can offer of Government inaction."

His Lordship: Is profiteering a crime? A crime is any offence which comes within the criminal law. I suppose there was some law here at the time?

Mr. Carver: There were regulations.

Mr. Braddell, opening on the pleadings, said the plaintiffs sued for damages in respect of a libel which appeared in the defendants' newspaper on January 7, 1920. It appeared in two separate places, a leader and another article. As a matter of fact, although they had not pleaded it, it also appeared in another publication of the defendants—the Straits Budget, which had a wide circulation and was "the retired man's Godsend."

The hearing is proceeding.

A GOOD SUGGESTION.

Mr. Chamberlain's Tablet, when talking of conscription, says: "You are certain to be much pleased with them. They are easy to take and pleasant to offer. For as a by all accounts and forebodings."

HONGKONG, THURSDAY, SEPT. 29, 1921.

THE SUPREME COUNCIL.

It seems that the split in the Supreme Council, casually mentioned in yesterday's leading article, has caused the Supreme Councilors to do what they ought to have done at the first outset, namely, to refer the Upper Silesia business to the L. O. N. It was League business all along, as was much else arising out of the peace treaty. Strictly speaking, all differences of opinion arising out of that treaty should have been settled by the League, and the Supremes (as we will call them for convenience) should have backed its decisions. Almost from the beginning the Supreme Council were usurpers, the people saw them as conquerors dictating terms which seemed natural and right; but all the terms they had the right to dictate were in their teeth. During 1919, the Supreme Council was an expedient thing, but after that it went too far. The approved necessity of the conservation of the Anglo-French entente has been the chief excuse for the Supremes carrying on beyond their brief and known the split has come to discount that. The present state of Europe condemns its claim to be an efficient body. It has created more problems than it has solved. It has revived many of the old evils of diplomacy, attempts to bargain selfishly and to over-reach. It has had no real unity of purpose of guiding principle, such as the L. O. N. has. Whereas a couple of years ago it could profitably have handed over all its tasks (save that of exhibiting the sanction of combined force or power) to the L. O. N., that is not so feasible now. It would not be fairer to the League than it would be to transfer to a qualified medical practitioner a patient whose defects have been aggravated by quacks. The fact is that from the governments which paid it lip-service, the L. O. N. has had mainly scorn, contempt, and treachery. The Supremes turned over to it petty matters to play with, retaining for their own bungling the major problems. The governments sent delegates to it who were good enough as men, but without the prestige of the Supremes. It is not the Supremes as men that we find fault with, since we would wish them to be serving on the League, but we object to the Supreme Council as a Council because it is Supreme. The same men, working on a body with a guiding principle—the League—would have done more good, and less harm, than they have done as a caucus or cabal. The League only "lacks authority" because the authorities have not lent it their support, their prestige, and their responsibility, which, as members of it, was their duty. What little they have done worthily, the same statesmen could have done in the League, and what they have done unworthily, the Supremes would have shrunk from as League. There are universally approved "moral" assurances in the League that cannot be looked for in a Supreme Council such as this. Mr. George himself would have been a better man, operating in the L. O. N., than the exigencies of cabal diplomacy have permitted him to be. He has played to the L. O. N., the part that Peter played to his Master, ere the cock crew thrice. The "practical" Supremes have failed; the "impractical" "Utopian" League has not been given a chance to show that it is the eminently practical saviour that it could be.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

In the Singapore Supreme Court last week the Chief Justice, Sir Walter Shaw, granted a stay of execution in a motion in which the Banque Industrielle de Chine was concerned, on the application of Mr. Laycock for the petitioning creditors.

A new departure is to be taken in the near future by the Osaka Mainichi, one of the two largest papers in Japan. This will be the issuing of an English Sunday edition, highly illustrated and along the lines of an American Sunday paper.

The old cruiser "Hermione," which put in a commission on the China station in 1898-1901, when Captain G. A. Callaghan commanded her, is to be sold out of the service. She was employed on various duties during the war.

Captain R. A. R. Neville, Royal Marine Light Infantry, who was appointed aide-de-camp to the Governor of Hongkong, as from June 11 last, has been seconded whilst so employed. Captain Neville served in the late war and was mentioned in despatches in 1919 for his services.

There was a heavy fall of snow on Mount Fuji on September 16. According to the Asahi, this is the first time for the past 60 years that the mountain has been shrouded with snow in September. The Omiyaguchi passage was covered with snow down to the fourth stage.

About 50 representative members of the barristers' associations in Tokyo and Osaka will go to Peking to attend the second meeting of the Asiatic conference of barristers. Dr. Urabe is president of the Japanese national association of barristers.

A quantity of Chinese porcelains and red lacquer ware, embroidered and bead handbags, amber necklaces, gold breast pins, scarf pins, sleeve buttons, bracelets and brooches, is advertised for sale at public auction by Messrs Hughes and Hough on Friday at 2.30 p.m. The stock, which recently arrived from the North includes pieces from the Ming, Kungchi, Kienlung and Tzong-wong periods. The same auctioneers will also sell a quantity of goods recently arrived from England. Particulars are given in our advertisement columns.

A sensation was caused in Kobe on September 17 upon the arrival of the N.Y.K.S. "Inaba Maru," bound for London, when a dozen of the water police boarded the liner and arrested three Koreans, who are suspected of being leaders in the Korean Provisional Government's administration in Shanghai. The Koreans boarded the boat at Yokohama. No definite evidence has been secured against the men as yet, but they are being held under strict police surveillance. Many letters and documents were seized when their quarters on the boat were raided.

According to a Home paper just to hand British exporters are looking to the East and Far East for an improved demand for coal. Freight has recently declined the earlier tendency being assisted by the lower prices of bunker coals. The comparatively low freight of 15s. 6d. per ton is reported to have been accepted for the voyage from South Wales to Singapore. A good mixture of South Wales coal can now be delivered in the East for about 45s. 6d. a ton. This is a price, which, it is understood, gives exporters in Britain a distinct advantage in competitive offers.

A reduction in rates which is the best answer given recently to the widespread complaints against the high cost of travel and living in Japan has just been announced by the Imperial Hotel in Tokyo. Beginning September 15, the price for a single room in the hotel annex is 76 a day, and up, a reduction of about 30 per cent. These rates include hot and cold running water, telephone and electric heating. The hotel management, in announcing the reduction, explains that the lower rates are due to the fact that the new Imperial Hotel is nearing completion and will be opened in the near future, giving a much greater number of rooms available for travellers in Tokyo.

INTERPORT SWIMMING.

FIRST DAY.

JOHNSTONE WINS 880.

HONGKONG LEADING 7-3.

The first two events in the Interport Swimming contest Hongkong v. Shanghai, have been decided. Hongkong secured first and second places in the half mile, and second place in the throwing the Polo Ball event, the honours for which went to MacCabe (Shanghai) with a magnificent throw of 74 feet. MacCabe won the same event when his team was down here in 1909. Buschaert (Hongkong) did not exhibit the form he did during practice, but he was a good second, with 64 feet 9 ins., and contributed two points to Hongkong's score, which at the close of the evening's sport was 7 against Shanghai's 3.

The V.R.C., gaily decorated with flags, presented an animated appearance with its balcony, verandah and, in fact, every point of vantage thronged with eager spectators. Another crowd lined the Praya wall and the stone steps leading to the sea. A lighter which shut off the course from the rest of the harbour and accommodated the judges, and other officials, was also invaded. Everybody was in a festive mood, and when the start was delayed by a couple of minutes many who had stood waiting for half an hour, showed signs of impatience. Many ladies were present, and their dresses of various delicate hues added a touch of colour to the picturesque scene.

The first event was the 880 yards race, 11 times over on 80 yard course in the harbour, outside the Club's wall. There were two prizes for this event: the first presented by Capt. L. Husey.

The following entered for the race:—
Shanghai: E. A. Th. Siemssen F. A. Remedios J. R. Tordy, J. W. Brown and R. W. MacCabe.
Hongkong: J. Johnstone, G. Jack, D. Laing, S. Marcal, J. Soares and J. Wood.

Of these, only five started, namely, Siemssen and Remedios (Shanghai), Johnstone, Jack and Laing (Hongkong). The men were given an ovation when they took their positions on the starting stage in the following order: Remedios and Siemssen on Johnstone's right, and Jack and Laing on his left.

As the men were being announced by the starter, Mr. R. C. Wittell, one was able to take stock of the principals in the race. Siemssen and Johnstone presented quite a great contrast as they stood side by side. The former was short and stocky, and looked everything that was claimed for him as a powerful swimmer. His appearance was certainly one to cause not a little anxiety to the spectators, let alone his rival Johnstone, standing a head and shoulder over Siemssen, was more gracefully built, and did not show any extraordinary power. But that appearance was deceptive, he proved conclusively. There was very little to choose in appearance between the other competitors.

The men took the water together in a fine start. For the first length they all took matters easily, and were all together, stroke for stroke. Johnstone adopted his usual graceful style which betrayed no signs of exertion. Siemssen also showed the form of an experienced swimmer, but he rolled a little. The others were a little splashy. Half way through the first length, Remedios began to show signs of discomfiture, and fell behind. The others kept close together. There also was very little to choose between Johnstone and Siemssen in the second length. They touched the board together. In the third length Johnstone increased his speed a little, and Siemssen replied strongly. Jack and Laing also kept pace. Remedios fell further behind. Johnstone touched the board a second before Siemssen at the end of the third lap, and kept the same pace in the fourth. Siemssen kept close, but lost ground gradually. Remedios dropped out of the race in this length. In the fifth length, Johnstone further increased his speed. Siemssen accepted the challenge, but he was swimming two strokes to Johnstone's one, and the latter pulled ahead slowly but steadily. Siemssen gave up the chase and turned his attention to Jack and Laing who were swimming together. The next length saw Siemssen swimming a slanting course, inclined towards the lighter. He lost a good bit of ground before he righted himself. Johnstone was swimming strongly about 20 yards in front of the rest. Siemssen again took a faulty course in the seventh length, but managed to keep level with Jack and Laing, who were taking their time. The eighth saw Jack and Laing going faster, but although Siemssen kept close, he realised the hopelessness of the

SIX MONTHS' JAIL FOR OLD OFFENDER.

A small Chinese boy this morning admitted to Magistrate Lindell having picked the pocket of a Chinese in Chinatown yesterday afternoon and stolen 75 cents. The police said that the accused was an old offender. He was sent to jail for two months and ordered to be whipped last year for a similar offence. Sentence of six months at the Lai-chekok prison for youthful offenders was passed.

A BASKET'S CONTENTS.

WOMAN'S PLAUSIBLE EXPLANATION FAILS.

A Chinese woman charged before Magistrate Lindell this morning with the unlawful possession of a revolver said that she met at the Samshuiho wharf yesterday afternoon a stranger who asked her to carry a small basket for him, telling her that he had suddenly been taken ill and could not make the journey to Hongkong. She was to take the basket here and deliver it at a certain address. She was on her way to this address when the police searched the basket and found the revolver. She denied that she knew the contents of the basket before it was opened. She undertook the job to earn a few cents. A fine of $100 or six weeks was imposed.

The winner's times at the end of each length were as follows:—

First length	56.3-5secs.
Second	2mins. 04.3-5
Third	3 " 16 "
Fourth	4 " 27 "
Fifth	5 " 40.3-5
Sixth	6 " 53 "
Seventh	8 " 08 "
Eighth	9 " 20 "
Ninth	10 " 36 "
Tenth	11 " 48 "
Eleventh	12 " 57.2-5

The next event was throwing the Polo Ball. For this event the entrants were:

Shanghai: R. W. MacCabe, L. Goldman, C. J. Encarnacao and F. A. Remedios.
Hongkong: E. Buschaert, M. L. Raitton, R. C. Wittell, G. A. Carvalho, J. Soares and L. M. Franco.

Remedios (Shanghai) and Soares (Hongkong) did not compete.

There were also two prizes for this event: the first presented by Mr. C. B. Brooke. Each competitor had three throws from behind a barrier in the water, six feet from the Praya wall. MacCabe took the lead with the first throw, and improving it in the third, won easily. Distance: 74 feet. Goldman was Shanghai's next best thrower, but he was beaten by Buschaert (Hongkong) with a throw of 64 feet 6 ins. Raitton and Wittell were both in the vicinity of Goldman's throw.

With one first and two seconds, Hongkong will continue the Interport to-day with 7 points to Shanghai's 3.

MASKED PIRATE'S EXPLOIT.

JUNK'S CREW IMPRISONED IN HOLD.

GIN DRINKER'S BAY ROBBERY.

The crew of a sanitary junk lying at anchor in Gin Drinkers Bay were awakened about 10.45 on Monday night by the dog barking from the fore part of the vessel. Before they could arm themselves, four men with cloth masks concealing their features boarded the junk from a dinghy and rushed the sleeping quarters at the stern of the vessel. One of the intruders exhibited a dagger and threatened death if any resistance was offered. The junk master and his folk were dragged out of their beds, bound, gagged, and imprisoned in the hold. The pirates then nailed down the hatch with three long nails, and placed a heavy basket of firewood over it. Having thus secured the prisoners, they ransacked the vessel stealing money and clothing to the value of $8.10. The junk people managed to release each other after the pirates had left, and to break open the wooden cover of the hatch.

RUSSIAN FAMINE RELIEF.

LEAGUE COMMITTEE'S HOT DEBATE.

GENEVA, September 29.

The sixth committee of the League of Nations adopted a report presented by M. Motta to the effect that if the governments fail to provide the necessary credits for famine relief in Russia, the League will not be answerable for the consequences. M. Motta begged Lord Robert Cecil not to insist on the League approving Dr. Nansen's agreement with the Soviet. A hot debate ensued. Lord Robert Cecil moved an amendment urging that no reference be made to the Brussels conference which is also discussing famine relief, saying that the League should act on its own account. Dr. Nansen declared that even if the League was not willing to take responsibility for relief, he would continue his efforts. He expressed the opinion that the League was better qualified to act than the Brussels conference. Lord Robert Cecil's amendment was defeated.

This match was played at the I.R.C. on Wednesday. For the Anglo-Indian School Arculli took 7 wickets for 25 runs and Kitchell scored 51. The Diocesan Team were very weak in Bowling but their fielding was good. This is the first of a series of School Matches which it is intended to arrange. ## CORRESPONDENCE.

A SOLDIER AND A MAN.

(To the Editor of the "China Mail.")

Dear Sir—I was one of those unfortunate who in 1914, knew not the hollow nature of the thing men call "Patriotism." So at the mere suggestion of the word I "joined up" and went through Hell.

The war is over and I have had time to review events from a "human" instead of a "patriotic" standpoint. To-day I hate and loathe war infinitely more and the Germans (themselves befuddled by Patriotism) infinitely less than I did in 1914.

Why cannot "Patriot" realise that to keep alive the senseless hate of Germans is the surest way to beget another war? Why not cultivate a good healthy hatred of war itself? Instead of "Lest we forget," "Let's forget," and thereby pave the way to a lasting peace.

Yours,
X. DELVILLE WOOD.

LOVER'S DASH ASHORE.

BACK TO HIS SWEETHEART ON THE LANDING-STAGE.

An emigrant changed his mind and made a successful last-minute dash to rejoin his sweetheart on the Liverpool landing-stage. The White Star Dominion liner "Canada" had sounded the last warning blast of the siren and the last gangway was being removed, when a young cabin passenger rushed to the shore. He and the young woman, both of whom were well dressed, embraced each other and with beaming faces walked arm in arm along the stage.

The fact that he had left his luggage and his mother in the liner apparently did not disturb their peace of mind. It is said that he was about to cross the Atlantic with his mother to join his father in Canada, and his fiancée had come to see him off.

AUSTRALIAN TRADE COMMISSIONER.

The first communications by mail have been received in Australia from the Commonwealth Trade Commissioner in China (Mr. Edward S. Little). The Commissioner advises he has already presented his credentials at Peking and has formally called on a few of the Chambers of Commerce, both European and Chinese. He states that he has been instrumental in adjusting certain disputes with Chinese shippers in a way that will be appreciated by the Australian merchants concerned. Apparently the Chinese Press has given Mr. Little a very favourable reception and a large amount of publicity. The Commissioner mentions that already a number of Australian business men have got in touch with him during the last few weeks, and he has been able to assist them considerably in their endeavours to extend their trading interests. The Commissioner has opened an office in Shanghai, where he has one male temporary clerk and a typist.

SAVED FROM THE SEA.

CHINESE AND THEIR CHICKENS.

A SHIPWRECKED JUNK.

When the s.s. "Huichow" arrived in Hongkong from Tientsin this morning she brought with her twelve Chinese who had been rescued from a large dismantled junk about fifteen miles to the North West of the Barrier Islands.

Flying a red flag as a distress signal, the junk was sighted at about nine o'clock on the morning of September 26. As the "Huichow" approached it was seen that the disabled craft was waterlogged and rolling heavily and, in spite of the strong wind and rough sea, the second mate (Mr. J. Stewart) and a lifeboat crew put off towards the junk. Though severely buffeted by the waves they succeeded in reaching her and were able to rescue all hands. In addition to the crew of the junk they brought about two small chickens that had managed to survive the perils of the sea and fifteen dozen eggs which formed part of the cargo.

Though not very much the worse, physically speaking, for their experience, the men were naturally overjoyed at their rescue and so eager to get aboard the steamer that two or three of them tried to clamber up the rope ladder at once. They stated that they had left a port near Shanghai about four days previously and that soon after they set sail for the South were caught in a typhoon. They lowered the sails at once but the seas tossed their craft about so badly that they decided to saw off the masts and take their chance of being picked up.

The junk was left at anchor in the present position where it is a menace to shipping. The rescued men will be handed over to the care of the Harbourmaster this afternoon.

ANOTHER DERELICT.
The master of the s.s. "Gregory Apear" reports having passed a derelict junk in Lat. 22.21 N. and Long. 114.22 E., a danger to navigation.

THAT WAR MEMORIAL.

STILL NOTHING DOING.

SIR PAUL CHATER INTERVIEWED.

"Any news of the war memorial?" inquired a China Mail reporter of Sir Paul Chater this morning. The Chairman of the War Memorial Committee shook his head. "No," he said "there's not much to say. Of course, we're still waiting for the plans and specifications in connection with the cenotaph to arrive from Home and when they come a start will be made with the work."
"And the ex-servicemen's club idea—what's the position about that?" the reporter queried. Sir Paul replied that as far as he knew that notion had been "knocked on the head." "Well then," persisted the pressman "what will the next move be?" "I suppose," Sir Paul said, "that I will have to call a meeting of subscribers in order to discuss what is to be done."

A company of the Wiltshire Regiment, with full band, went for a route march to Kowloon City this morning. They returned to barracks about 2 p.m., attracting much attention en route.

TO-DAY'S CABLES.

(Reader's Service to the China Mail.)

ADEN ANOTHER SINGAPORE.

PROPOSED TRANSFER TO COLONIAL OFFICE.

CHURCHILL'S SEVERAL SCHEMES.

LONDON, September 28.

The Indian Council of State has carried a motion protesting against the proposed transfer of Aden to the Colonial Office, only one non-official member supporting the transfer, namely the representative of the Bombay Chamber of Commerce who urged that the transfer would benefit trade and commerce with the result that Aden would grow in importance like Singapore. The Foreign Secretary said that the Government's attitude was one of benevolent neutrality. The transfer was largely due to the growing expenditure on Aden.

The Manchester Guardian says that Mr. Winston Churchill has several plans for the development of Aden. He hopes to extend the protectorate to the Bahrain islands, thus linking up with Basra on the Persian Gulf. He intends to amalgamate the administration of Aden with that of Somaliland.

ECONOMIC SANCTIONS GOING.

GERMANY ACCEPTS INTER-ALLIED CONTROL CONDITIONS.

PARIS, September 28.

Germany having accepted the conditions regarding the establishment of inter-allied control on the Rhine frontier after the raising of the economic sanctions, M. Briand has informed the German Ambassador that the sanctions will be raised on September 30.

A REMARKABLE SPEECH.

MUNICH, September 28.

A feature of to-day's proceedings of the Congress of the Imperial Association of German Trade was a remarkable speech by Herr Rathenau declaring that complete fulfilment of the terms of the ultimatum will hit the world economically more severely than Germany. Germany must work more than the others. He advocated going to the limit of their capacity regarding reparation.

MUNICH, September 28.

The constitution committee of the Bavarian Diet has approved the agreements already concluded between representatives of the Bavarian and Imperial Governments on September 24 whereby the tension between the two Governments is removed.

PREMIER DECLARES FOR PROTECTIVE TARIFF.

PORT AGELA PRINCE, September 28.

Mr. Meighen opening the election campaign, urged a protective tariff to safeguard Canada's industries from worldwide competition. He did not believe in high protective tariff which would be unfair to the West but proposed a voluntary pool of the principal grains to be handled by a government board.

CHILE AND BOLIVIA.

LEAGUE ASSEMBLY SETTLES INCIDENT.

GENEVA, September 28.

The incident between Chile and Bolivia has been settled by the assembly of the League. The Bolivian delegation withdrew under reserve a request for revision of the treaty. MARK'S RAPID DECLINE.

SPECULATIVE EXCESSES BY UNPATRIOTIC INDUSTRIALISTS.

ANXIOUS BERLIN COMMENT.

BERLIN, September 28.

The rapid decline in the value of the mark is the subject of anxious comment. The newspapers agree in describing it as catastrophic. It is attributed to speculative excesses by unpatriotic industrialists anxious to acquire foreign exchange to cover purchases of raw material.

KRONEN'S FURTHER COLLAPSE.

VIENNA, September 28.

Rumours of difficulties connected with the grant of foreign credits have caused a further collapse in the kronen which is quoted at 34 to the penny.

ARBUCKLE CASE.

POLICE COURT PROSECUTION CLOSED.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 28.

The case for the prosecution against Arbuckle closed at the police court yesterday. The judge warned the district attorney that he was risking the danger of a dismissal by failure to produce more proof but rejected a request from the defence that the charge be dismissed.

CHARGE MANSLAUGHTER.

BOYCOTT OF FRENCH GOODS.

ORGANISED MOVEMENT IN GERMANY.

BERLIN, September 28.

The newspapers print the text of a French note requesting Germany to end the French boycott movement which the note declares began in February at Bremen and extended to Hamburg where it received the support of the Hansa League of chambers of commerce. It was thence organised throughout Germany and propagated in technical publications and political organs. The note instances the Bavarian railway authorities threatening to close down restaurants selling entente goods.

SHIPPING.

PACIFIC COMPETITION.

FREIGHT WAR HARDER THAN EVER.

The freight war, which has now been in existence for some time, is getting more harsh than ever. Even shipping companies which belong to Conferences secretly cut down freight rates, to say nothing of the more honourable competition of tramps. On the Shanghai-Tientsin line severe competition has already been provoked through the intrusion of the Teikwa-yoko. The Yamashita Kisen Kaisha has, on the other hand, put ships on the America-Australian line, and the Osaka Shosen Kaisha on the Calcutta line, while American ships on the Egyptian-American line have been trying very hard to secure shipments. The Mainichi remarks that the activity of American ships is especially remarkable in acquiring shipments of Egyptian cotton. Consignors of Egyptian cotton had been about to make agreements with American ships to take shipments at low rates, when they were forced to abandon the agreements owing to the pressure of British conference lines. To counteract this the American Shipping Board is determined, our contemporary says, to down the British ships by the instrumentality of the Jones Act. The gravity, with which shipping companies have invaded the limits of other companies is due, according to the Mainichi to circumstances which compel them to adopt that course, as their need of expansion is imperative if they would pay their way. Naturally the competitors find it difficult to fill their holds and sharp competition ensues. Such being the state of affairs, shipping companies, in finding a way out, have no alternative but to cut down expenses. Cheap coal, smaller crews and lower pay are their chief remedies.

INSURANCE OF LOST SHIPS.

INLAND REVENUE AND ACCRETION OF CAPITAL.

In the House of Commons Sir Cecil Beck asked the Chancellor of the Exchequer whether the Government intended to abide by the pledges given to those who built ships during the war, whether seeing that the true legal position as regards special allowances for depreciation of value was set out in the circular prepared by the Board of Inland Revenue and circulated by the Ministry of Shipping on the 25th of May, 1917, he could state on whose authority an attempt was being made, in apparent defiance of the law, to deduct from special allowances as set out in the above circular certain accretions of capital arising through insurance of lost ships?

Mr. Hilton Young.—The matter is one in the first place for the Board of Inland Revenue (subject to an appeal to the Board of Referees), and the Board of Inland Revenue take the view, a view from which I see no reason to dissent, that in cases where an appreciation in the value of a ship has been realised by the recovery of insurance money based on the increased value the realised appreciation was a factor which should properly be taken into consideration in connection with a claim for allowance in respect of exceptional depreciation of other vessels. I cannot agree with my hon. friend's suggestion that this view in any way violates either the provisions of the law or the terms of any undertaking given by the Board of Inland Revenue.

THE NEW YORK LINE.

Shipping conditions between the Orient and New York are anything but satisfactory, and it is even found difficult to maintain the solidarity of the Conference, while the freight rates of various shippers are quite disordered. It was expected that condition would become worse through the attempt of the Trans-American railways to absorb shipments via the Pacific ports to New York by decreasing freights. These expectations, however, have proved far from the mark, for the activity of the homeward Trans-Pacific line and the recovery of the outward line due to the deficiency of foodstuffs in Europe have created a tendency for the New York line to receive more cargoes, while freight rates have already been reduced by shipowners to the largest possible extent. Some of the participants in the Conference therefore advocate that it is necessary for them to act in union and maintain the solidarity of the Conference at this time of depression. These overtures will shortly be supported by all the participants, and the situation is such that the Conference will substantially be remodelled soon. Important shipments to New York are generally from China and the South Seas.

GENERAL NOTES.

Japanese goods in the South Seas find their markets steadily encroached upon by foreign goods. The severest sufferers are piecegoods and porcelain. Manchester goods are entering the islands at low figures. In the case of porcelain, German and Dutch goods are coming in. These foreign-made piecegoods and pottery are 20 to 15 per cent. cheaper than Japanese goods.

It will be remembered that the Osaka Shosen Kaisha placed orders with a British shipbuilding yard for construction of the "London-maru" and the "Paris-maru." Now it is reported that the "London-maru" was launched on September 3, being completed in the early part of November. Upon completion, it will be placed on the European run. It is of 15,000 tons, running 14 knots an hour. The "Paris-maru" is expected to be completed next January.

The Pacific Freight Conference has reduced the rate on sweet oranges from $10 to $8 from the beginning of September. The rate on raw silk from Shanghai to America has been lowered from $7.50 to $5. To compete with the Conference, C.P.O.S. reduced the orange rate to $10 some time ago, and as its liners reach their destination two or three days earlier than the steamers of the Conference ships, shipments are sent for preference by the Canadian company.

PICKPOCKETS' BODGE FAILS.

SIX WEEKS' JAIL FOR STEALING PURSE.

Magistrate Linsell had before him this morning two Chinese youths charged respectively, with having picked pockets and received stolen property. Both entered pleas of not guilty.

The complainant said that he was walking along the Praya yesterday afternoon when the first defendant jostled him and then fell on the ground, seizing witness's coat, and complaining that he had hurt his foot. His suspicions aroused, the witness put his hand in his pocket and found his purse missing. He grabbed the defendant, who then admitted taking the purse but offered to return it if the witness would promise not to give him in charge and help him find the man to whom he had passed the purse. The witness and a district watchman who arrived just then, went with first accused to Lower Lascar Row where he pointed out second accused. When the watchman made to arrest him, the latter dropped what appeared to be a $5 bill. It was picked up by another youth who was with second accused. This man made off with the money. The witness and the watchman brought both accused to the station.

The Magistrate passed sentence of six weeks' hard labour each.

CHINA'S FUTURE.

MR. LENOX SIMPSON'S VIEWS.

Mr. R. Lenox Simpson, Adviser to the Chinese Government, gave an address on August 22 to the Chinese Students' Conference at Swanwick, Derbyshire. Speaking of the unsettled state of China, he said:—It is my belief that in the course of the next year or two the true solution will suddenly occur to every one, which is that something closely resembling British Dominion Home Rule is needed in a country of such vast size as China, and that the central capital should be no more than a national clearing-house for business of a specified nature. I have important recommendations to make when I return to China. It must never be forgotten that England for eighty years has been the premier Power in the Far East, and that if she wishes to retain that proud position commercially and industrially she must unite her policy so far as possible with China's policy. In the long run the vast mass of the Chinese people, their capacity for work and their great supplies of raw materials, will exercise a preponderating influence politically on the Pacific and decide the problems of Eastern Asia in a sense different from what one school of thought has propagated during the past decade.

It is not generally known that that great and tragic figure, that late Lord Kitchener, when he visited Peking twelve years ago offered in writing to reform the Chinese army, and make it able to meet any foe within the space of two years. He was a good judge, and never spoke lightly. To-day it is peace, not war, that the world must have—universal peace is our common ideal. Yet, nevertheless, it should not be banished from our minds that China is a strong and virile nation in every sense of the word, and that her value as a friend and an ally extends to every field of human activity, and must increase from year to year.

Magistrate Linsell heard further evidence yesterday about the paddy worm poisoning case. One of the assistants at the medicine shop who was one of the victims said that after tasting the food he at once suspected the gritty substance in it to be arsenic. He was in charge of the poisons in the shop and he kept the stock of arsenic hidden under his clothes in an unlocked drawer. The hearing was further adjourned.

Several well known Hongkong people came back to the Colony from home yesterday. The s.s. "Sardinia" brought Dr. B. H. Mellon, the Port Health officer, Capt. V. Mc. C. Liddell, of Jardine, Matheson's, and Mrs. Dutton and her two children. Mr. E. J. Ainslie of Lane, Crawford, and Coy., came back by the s.s. "Atsuta Maru," and another passenger by that vessel was Mr. G. B. Moss, of the British Consulate at Canton, who was accompanied by his wife and children. It is understood that Mr. Moss will be transferred to Chungking.
